

RESOLUTION NO. 01-11-28 B

A Resolution Requesting an Amendment to Section 4-62-1B NMSA, 1978

WHEREAS, Section 4-62-2B(10) NMSA (1978) as currently written requires a New Mexico County to deposit 100% of all gross receipts tax collected during each fiscal year into a bond fund when such tax is pledged as security for issuance of gross receipts bonds; and,

WHEREAS, Section 4-62-2B(10) NMSA (1978) as currently written also requires that all gross receipts revenues must remain in the bond fund until the end of the fiscal year, even though the amount due on the revenue bonds may have been satisfied early in the year; and,

WHEREAS, due to the serious financial situation Grant County is in, it is in current need of such gross receipts money that is unnecessarily sitting in the statutorily created fund until the end of the fiscal years; and,

WHEREAS, a simple amendment to Section 4-62-1B(10) can be made by deleting the language "At the end of each fiscal year" from line 11 of the second paragraph, enabling Grant County as well as all counties throughout the State of New Mexico to use this gross receipts funding without unnecessary wait;

THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the Board of County Commissioners requests that Grant County Legislative Delegation introduce the above proposed amendments to Section 4-62-1B(10) at the 2002 Legislative Session.
