RESOLUTION R06-19

Declaration of Drought and Fire Emergency

WHEREAS the County of Grant has been suffering from reduced rainfall amounts for the past and current years; and,

WHEREAS this lack of precipitation has resulted in drought conditions that pose significant problems for the citizens of Grant County; and,

WHEREAS these drought conditions have created extreme fire danger conditions as exhibited by the recent "Skates Fire"; and,

WHEREAS the Rural Fire Departments and the Sheriff Office have been using all available resources to assist in fighting and preventing these fires; and,

WHEREAS these drought conditions have also created financial hardships for persons such as farmers and ranchers who depend on rainfall to make their living off of the land,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Grant County Board of Commissioners hereby declares a state of emergency with regard to the drought and fire conditions and their impact upon the citizens of Grant County, and hereby requests that all available assistance be provided to the citizens of Grant County in order to alleviate the social, environmental, and economic hardships associated with the present drought conditions.

Approved and adopted on this 22nd Day of June, 2006, in an emergency meeting of the Grant County Commission.

Attest:

Joseph Arellano, Commissioner

Henry "Howie" Morales, County Clerk
