- c. The chat feature, if present, may be used by parties to make objections or otherwise ask for an opportunity to be heard. The chat feature shall not be used for substantive argument or testimony.
 - d. No person, including an attorney, may communicate with a witness about their testimony during that testimony.
 - e. If they are in separate locations, attorneys and parties may communicate privately via text or email during the hearing, provided however, parties may not communicate with counsel while they are testifying.
 - f. No one else may communicate with witnesses privately during the hearing without permission from the board chairperson.
 - g. If an interpreter or other accommodation is needed, please notify PTD at least five days prior to the hearing.
8. Witnesses.
- a. The party calling a witness is responsible for ensuring that the witness has the ability to participate in the hearing.
 - b. All witnesses will be sworn in and should be prepared to present a valid form of identification to verify their identity to the Board over the video feed.
 - c. The party calling the witness is responsible for ensuring that all exhibits are provided to the witness, including those of opposing party. Parties may use the screen sharing feature to assist in presenting their testimony.
9. Option for Written Submittals. If the parties so agree, they may submit their cases, including exhibits and argument, in writing to the board. The board shall then rule in writing without holding a public hearing. If the parties agree to make written submittals in lieu of a hearing, they should contact the board chairperson for submission instructions.
10. Alternate Procedures. PTD recognizes that individual circumstances may vary, and that there may be novel issues associated with conducting remote hearings. Board chairpersons are empowered to adapt these procedures to any individual situation when the demands of fairness and due process demand it. The parties are asked to cooperate in any alternate procedures when requested. Communication is of utmost importance. Due to PTD staff working remotely, the parties should raise any issues with PTD via email in a timely manner, with the opposing party copied on the email.
